WORKPLAN FOR 2016/2017

Leadership

As an association we believe in the importance of our role as a voice for the sector. In the coming year we will:

- Progress the Future of Libraries work, supporting the sector to develop clear work plans in the four areas identified – One Library, Workforce Development, Open Access and Biculturalism – and begin to deliver the vision articulated at the Summit.
- Continue to advocate to government in key areas. We will provide comment on the National Library Strategic plan, support the copyright committee to make submissions regarding copyright legislation in the wake of the TPP, and comment wherever appropriate on issues affecting our sector.
- Continue to develop and implement advocacy strategies on behalf of the profession.
- Comment in the media where libraries are mentioned to ensure correct messages about libraries are being heard.

Opportunities for Growth

We will continue to support our members to grow and extend themselves through:

- Kōtuku – our Emerging Leadership Programme. We will deliver Cohort three, and continue to improve the programme each year to increase its impact on the sector. We will also look for opportunities to collaborate with the providers of other leadership programmes.
- Continuing our commitment to send a member of Council to the Te Rōpū Whakahau Hui a tau.
- Make the Most of your Membership emails alerting our members to key opportunities provided by their LIANZA membership.
- The delivery of our Associateship and other professional awards and scholarships.
- The provision of volunteer opportunities including roles on our working groups, membership of SIG / Regional committees, and tailored volunteer roles through National Office.

Community of Practice

We will grow and nurture our Communities of Practice by:

- Developing and growing our membership in partnership with our SIG's and regions
- Supporting our Library Life editor in the monthly delivery of Library Life Twitter Chats
- Shout! 2015 – the LIANZA conference
- Supporting SIG's and regions to deliver great regional events
- Publishing the results of our SLIS Survey
- Delivering regular publications including Library Life and NZLIMJ
- Continuing to deliver our 5 Minutes On Videos and our regular webinars
- Providing access to pre-digital LIANZA resources and publications through Recollect
- Continuing to grow our Social Media Community.

Sustainable Foundations

We will continue to maintain sustainable foundations through:

- Retain and increase membership by increasing our value to members
- Deepening partnerships with other organisations
- Continued work towards financial sustainability
- Ongoing work to strengthen our Code of Practices
- Refinement of office processes
- Continued use of Zoom as a meeting tool
- Responding to proposed changes to Incorporated Societies Act and implications for LIANZA.

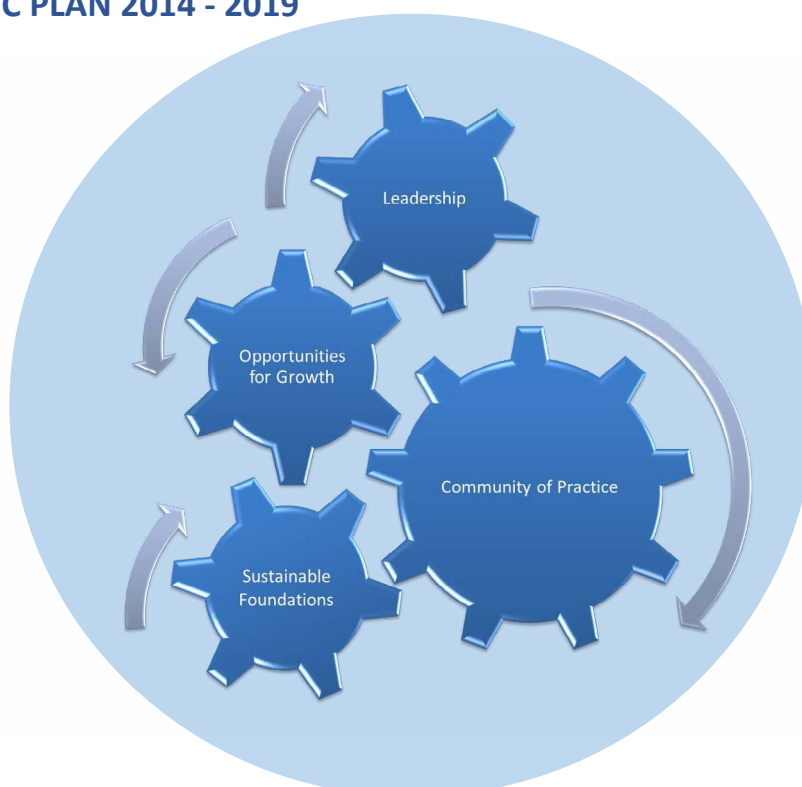

LIANZA STRATEGIC PLAN 2014 - 2019

Leadership

LIANZA takes a leadership role in the profession establishing itself as an authority on Library and Information matters in New Zealand.

Opportunities for Growth

LIANZA provides growth opportunities for members of the profession, through training, volunteer opportunities, and leadership development.

Community of Practice
