

Research Mentors

Read and acted on the Research Toolkit, but still unsure?

Here is a list of research mentors willing to share their time and expertise. This may include helping with narrowing a question/problem or selecting an appropriate methodology.

A couple of stipulations:

- Choose one to contact
- They cannot help with a particular topic
- They have a limited time commitment; expect perhaps an hour of help

ResearchSIG

NZ Library and Information
Science Research Special Interest
Group

LIANZA

Name	Contact	Organisation	Expertise
Dr Philip Calvert	philip.calvert@vuw.ac.nz	Victoria University of Wellington	Researcher and lecturer at VUW's School of Information Management. Ethics; Library management; Service quality; Performance measures
Alison Fields	alison.fields@openpolytechnic.ac.nz	Open Polytechnic
Mandy Henk	mandy@creativecommons.org.nz	Creative Commons Aotearoa	MIS equivalent, published author, research active. Specialist area: copyright
Dr Jo Simons	j.simons@auckland.ac.nz	University of Auckland	MIS librarian. Ethics; quantitative methodologies.
Dr Julie Trafford	julie.trafford@aut.ac.nz	AUT	Learning advisor at AUT Library. Research active; statistics