1.0 Purpose

LIANZA is a national membership organisation built upon contributing communities.

LIANZA Communities are formed by members and can be geographically, sector or interest based.

LIANZA Communities operate on behalf of and as part of LIANZA, and through their activities contribute to the sustainability of their national association.

Using the LIANZA brand provides an easily recognisable status and indicates that the LIANZA Community provides authentic ways of connecting with LIANZA members and library and information professionals throughout New Zealand.

LIANZA Communities are run by energetic and committed volunteer members, who generously give their time to create an active and vibrant network of activities around New Zealand.

This policy aims to provide clear guidance about establishing, operating, leading and facilitating LIANZA Communities, and to clearly articulate the support provided by the Association.
